Respect for Human Rights

RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Basic Approach

Mazda respects for human rights as fundamental to its corporate activities. Mazda never tolerates human rights violations of any kind in all business activities inside and outside the Company, including discrimination or bullying on the basis of race, nationality, faith, gender, social status, family origin, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

Mazda recognizes that, from the perspective of human rights due diligence^{*1}, a system and mechanism to grasp the activity status and to identify, report, correct and follow-up actual and potential negative impacts are required. The scope of human rights activities has been expanded to include domestic and overseas Group companies as well as suppliers, with the following efforts being conducted.

Basic Principles

Mazda's respect for human rights is fundamental to its corporate activities, and it never tolerates human rights violations of any kind in all business activities inside and outside the Company.

The Company will continue human rights protection activities with the ultimate goal of zero problems.

Human Rights Declaration (November 2000)

Mazda will strive to become the leading company in Japan for respecting human rights and for the ethical treatment of its employees.

Rules / Guidelines

One of the five principles of behavior stipulated in the Mazda Corporate Ethics Code of Conduct is "to comply with laws and regulations, company rules, common sense and sound practice in international society." Mazda has striven to increase employee awareness of its fundamental approach to respect for human rights, by further clarifying Company policies and standards of behavior among employees, in the light of the basic principles of the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, and the International Labour Organization (ILO) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

Specifically, Mazda established the Guidelines on Eliminating Sexual Harassment (name later changed to Guidelines to Eliminate Human Rights Violations) in 1999 and the Rules to Eliminate Human Rights Violations, which prohibit any activity that may infringe on an employee's human rights in business activities inside and outside the Company, in 2000. These rules and guidelines are revised as needed according to law amendment and circumstances inside and outside the Company. The most recent revisions are as follows:

- June 2020: Mazda working regulations were revised so that employees are treated fairly in terms of holidays, allowances, and other conditions regardless of legal marriage or marriage without registration (marriage between people of opposite genders or the same gender).
- August 2020: The Guidelines to Eliminate Human Rights Violations were revised according to revisions in harassment-related laws (effective from June 2020).
- March 2021: The Rules to Eliminate Human Rights Violations were revised according to revisions in harassment-related laws so that the definition of power harassment conform to the definition in the relevant laws.

The Guidelines to Eliminate Human Rights Violations and the Rules to Eliminate Human Rights Violations are posted on the Company's Intranet and are made known to employees through educational and training programs.

Systems for Promoting Human Rights

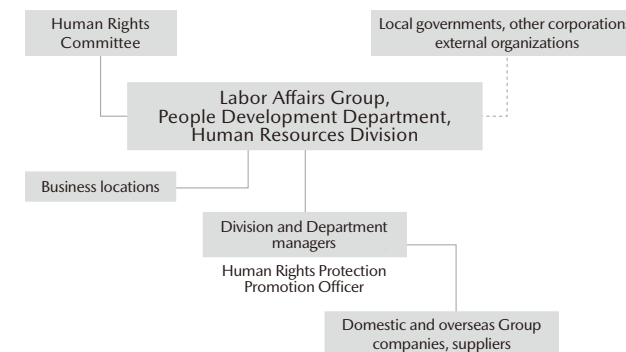

The Human Rights Committee, comprising executive officers and division general managers, deliberates on human rights activities, and based on their decisions the Human Resources Division promotes human rights protection activities and resolves issues throughout the Group. Each division manager leads the division's activities as the human rights promotion officer at Mazda Motor Corporation, while the person in charge of human rights leads activities at each Mazda business location as well as at Group companies in Japan and overseas.

At Group companies in Japan, a network has been established to exchange opinions on a regular basis. Serious human rights violations identified through the network are reported to executive officers and other management-level members of Mazda Motor Corporation, providing a framework that enables the implementation of Group-wide solutions.

Moreover, once a year, the Global Employee survey is conducted to check the progress in human rights protection activities in each region around the world and confirm whether there is any problem to be addressed or not. The results of the survey are fed back to each management and improvement measures are taken as needed.

As for suppliers, Mazda seeks to establish a supply chain in which suppliers are also required to fulfill their social responsibilities in the area of respect for human rights, based on the Mazda Supplier CSR Guidelines (☞ P107)

Human Rights Promotion System

^{*1} Due diligence is the comprehensive, proactive process to identify the actual and potential negative social, environmental and economic impacts of an organization's decisions and activities over the entire life cycle of a project or organizational activity, with the aim of avoiding or mitigating negative impacts (cited from ISO 26000)

Respect for Human Rights

Activities at Group Companies in Japan and Overseas

In line with its "ONE MAZDA" concept, Mazda is committed to promoting human rights activities in its Group companies.

Based on the basic principles stated in the Mazda Human Rights Declaration and with reference to the Rules to Eliminate Human Rights Violations, the Guidelines to Eliminate Human Rights Violations, Mazda Group companies are maintaining a set of rules and guidelines that take into account the conditions in each country where they are applied. Through these efforts, the Company strives to protect human rights at all companies throughout the Group. There is also regular information exchange between human rights officers at Mazda Motor Corporation and each Group company. Depending on the circumstances of the particular company, Mazda Motor Corporation may also take steps such as providing training/education tools or dispatching instructors.

Since FY March 2017, Mazda supports Group companies in establishing a system for human rights training, and providing materials of Mazda's Human Rights Meetings to Group companies.

Mazda also responds to human rights consultations from employees of Group companies via the Human Rights Counseling Desk, the Female Employee Counseling Desk, the Mazda Global Hotline, etc. (P105)

Human Rights Counseling by Dedicated Counselors

Mazda has established a Human Rights Counseling Desk and a Female Employee Counseling Desk to appropriately respond to human rights consultations from employees, through providing advice and supporting early relief from human rights violations.

Mazda has set out regulations mandating strict confidentiality, guaranteeing immunity from reprisals, and ensuring that no disadvantage will accrue to employees who request consultations. Counseling is offered in various forms, such as face-to-face, by telephone, or by e-mail. Mazda promptly responds to consultations, with the goal of rapidly improving the work environment for the affected employee, while taking necessary measures against the relevant violator based on factual inquiry. The Company also offers the necessary support to ensure respect for human rights throughout the entire workplace, through the abovementioned counseling desks. For example, these desks offer advice on workplace culture improvement to the employee's supervisor, and provide counseling and advice for the employees and other persons concerned.

Initiatives to Prevent Human Rights Violations

Mazda carries out various initiatives to eliminate human rights violations. In case a problem involving human rights violations occurs, the Company discloses the case on the intranet as an example of disciplinary action, and conducts educational and awareness raising activities in order to prevent a recurrence. Mazda records the results of handling these cases and manages in accordance with the stipulated procedure, and reports to the Human Rights Committee. These records are used to formulate more effective Companywide policies and to prevent the recurrence of similar problems.

Training and Educational Activities

Mazda proactively and regularly provides awareness-raising activities and education on human rights, targeting all executive officers and employees. In March 2008, recognized for these initiatives and other human rights protection activities, Mazda became the first corporation in Japan to be awarded the Human Rights Merit Award by Japan's Ministry of Justice and the National Federation of Consultative Assemblies of Civil Liberties Commissioners.

Human Rights Training*1

■ Collective training

Mazda holds obligatory human rights training programs for employees when they newly join the Company and they are promoted in rank or position. The Company also holds event-based training such as human rights lectures for executive officers and senior managers. Moreover, the Company also holds training programs by department that are customized to each department in response to its specific needs.

In FY March 2017, Mazda started to organize training programs and lectures to promote understanding of sexual minority (LGBT) issues.

■ Human rights mini-lectures and other information offered via the in-house intranet

Mazda conducts activities to raise human rights awareness by human rights minilectures through intranet, and e-learning programs and to ensure that all employees can share recognition regarding power harassment and sexual harassment.

Senior Management's Message During Human Rights Week*1

The Company senior management delivers to all employees a message on the importance of respect for human rights every year during Human Rights Week, in connection with Human Rights Day on December 10.

Human Rights Meetings*1

Mazda holds regular meetings (four times a year for plant workers, twice a year for office workers) at each workplace themed on familiar topics, allowing employees to develop awareness for human rights on a daily basis.

Other Human Rights Education Activities*1

Mazda has held Human Rights Slogan Competitions and established a special website on its human rights protection activities.
